When	Who, where Room name	Title, Who for See Key below	Description
Friday morning 10 – 11:15 a.m.	Jim Bates Lakeview	Better Practicing L/D, Dis, AI, AL	We'll explore the various skills that count as practice: new skills and techniques, score study, preparing for performance.
	Brian Oberlin Minnetonka	Improv for Sport & Fun: an intro to improvisation for anyone P, L/D, MFI, Beg./Int.	This workshop focuses on the idea of improvisation. It is time tested, fun, easy, memorable, and guaranteed to get the mandolinist thinking about improvisation and seamlessly accessing the notes that make them a favorite at social events.
	Rene Izquierdo and Elina Chekan Isles	Applied Guitar Technique P, L/D, Dis, G, AL	Here guitarists will discuss how to develop a balanced technique at all levels.
Fri. afternoon 1:40 – 2:55 p.m.	Carlo Aonzo Lakeview	Italian Mandolin Music – Folk and Classical P, L/D, AI, AL	Carlo will explore Italian musical roots, highlighting music from his Northern Italian & Ticino Region Folk Songs for Mandolin (Mel Bay) and some classical Italian compositions.
	Peter Ostroushko Minnetonka	How to Play Honeysuckle Rose P, L/D, MFI, AL	Subtitled: "...and other semi-useless information," this workshop will be a look into the world of the mandolin with Peter O.
	Don Julin Isles	Introduction to Music Theory P, L/D, AI, AL	This fun workshop explains basic music theory concepts that can be used every day, including scales, modes, chords, modulations and even a bit of blues. Bring your instrument!
Saturday morning 10 – 11:15 a.m.	Evan Marshall Ballroom	The Art of Practicing the Art of Practicing P, L/D, Dis, MFI, Adv. & serious Int. level	Organizing your precious practice time well and working efficiently can help you reach your goals. Evan will discuss the "four basic food groups" of practice time, scale studies that will increase your skill level, and two dovetailing strategies for burning new repertory into your fingers and your memory.
	Stephen Lalor Lakeview	The mandolin is not a plucked violin P, L/D, MFI, AL	Stephen will talk about his approach to playing and writing for the mandolin in an idiomatic way, and how to use the mandolin's natural features to best advantage.
	Rene Izquierdo and Elina Chekan Minnetonka	Practicing & Performing P, L/D, G, AL	This guitar workshop looks at healthy habits for a successful performance, including conquering performance anxiety.
	Jim Bates Isles	Musicianship: What is it? How to get it? P, L/D, AI, AL	Jim will lead an exploration of ways to become more musical and provide ideas for creative performance.
Sat. afternoon 1:15 – 2:30 p.m.	Marilynn Mair Ballroom	Expressive Tremolo P, L/D, MFI, AL	Tremolo is an important interpretive tool for the mandolin. Learn how to sharpen yours.
	Peter Ostroushko Lakeview	Composing P, L/D, AI, AL	Hear Peter talk about how he captures the essence of a place or experience in his music, to grab your heart and pull you along.
	Brian Oberlin Minnetonka	Swing Mandolin: Chord Shapes, Melodies and Inner Workings of Swing P, L/D, AI, Int./Adv.	We will delve into swing chords and how they work, including easy extensions. The melodies in swing are the best part and we'll discover why they swing and how to apply this to your own playing. Finally, we will discuss the workings of passing "mini-chords" and how easy and accessible they are.
	James Holdman Isles	Rhythm and Polyrhythm L/D, AI, AL	Increase your skills in the rhythmic realm! Explore and navigate polyrhythms!
